

Welcome to the U.S. Chamber Federation Program

The Pennsylvania Chamber is pleased to announce an additional, significant new benefit for qualified businesses. Thanks to our partnership with the U.S. Chamber of Commerce in Washington, D.C., the U.S. Chamber offers a membership to you at no additional cost.

As the world's largest business federation, the U.S. Chamber is proud that 96 percent of its membership is comprised of smaller businesses and is excited to welcome your business to its ranks. Through this membership, you'll have access to many benefits that are designed specifically for small businesses, including toolkits, news, advocacy updates, other products, services and publications.

To get started, visit <http://connect.uschamber.com> to set up your Chamber Connect Account. You will receive an email from the U.S. Chamber that will provide you with your official membership number and information on how to access these new and valuable resources:
